Job Title: Leasing Manager, Alamo-Five Points-Women In Transition
Reports To: Director of Property Management
Hours: Full time, varied to meet the needs of the position
FLSA Status: Non-exempt

ORGANIZATION DESCRIPTION AND JOB SUMMARY

The Primavera Foundation is a non-profit agency that has been providing pathways out of poverty and strengthening the Tucson community since 1983, through a variety of programs and services. The Asset Management team is responsible for the acquisition, management, maintenance, and disposition of Primavera's properties and vehicles. As a member of the Asset Management team, the Leasing Manager is responsible for the day to day operations of three affordable housing communities located near the downtown area; the Alamo Apartments with 14 units, Five Points with 28 units, and Women In Transition with 12 units.

The Leasing Manager is responsible for the day to day management of the properties and for providing a safe, healthy, and professionally-maintained residential environment. The Leasing Manager also ensures that units remain rented to eligible residents, that rents are paid, collected, and processed in a timely manner, that all rental agreements/procedures/processes meet specific criteria, and that Primavera's commitment to safe, affordable housing is fulfilled in alignment with the agency's mission and guiding principles. The successful candidate or incumbent will be highly-structured, detail and quality-oriented, driven for results, analytical, and a skilled, creative problem-solver, as well as an individual who excels in proactive and productive communication with others, and is passionate about making a difference in the Tucson community.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES (Work assignments may vary depending on the department's needs and will be communicated to the applicant or incumbent by the leadership):
