

United Way Emergency Housing Assistance for Federal Workers In partnership with the Primavera Foundation

The United Way of Tucson and Southern Arizona and the Primavera Foundation are partnering to provide emergency rent, mortgage, and utility assistance for federal workers who are impacted by the recent government shutdown.

Individuals and couples are eligible to receive up to $800 in assistance. Families with minor children in the home are eligible to receive up to $1,500 in assistance. All assistance will be paid to the housing or utility entity and not directly to the program participant. Families are eligible for assistance with childcare expenses with a statement from a licensed childcare provider within the $1,500 limit.

The Primavera Foundation will hold a special housing assistance event on Tuesday, February 5th at their downtown location:
Homeless Intervention and Prevention Program (HIP)
702 S. 6th Ave, Tucson, AZ, 85701
(17th St and 6th Ave on the #18 bus route)

Federal workers must have their Federal ID with them to establish eligibility.

For rental assistance:

Bring a notice from the landlord/property management company that details the amount of rent owed and any applicable fees. Primavera will also need contact information for the landlord in order to obtain a W-9 and will request a notice directly from the landlord if needed.

For utility assistance:

Bring original statements from the utility companies.

For mortgage assistance:

Bring original statement from the mortgage provider.

To make an appointment for the special housing assistance event on February 5th, please call 623-5111. Walk-ins may be accepted depending on availability of resources. A limited number of appointments may be available for a later date.
